DO THE FAR RIGHT THING

You've ceased to be funny and I've ceased to buy your liberal rag. What ever happened to the humor upon which you built your magazine? In Mike Snider's "The Republican Party's 'Contract With America' (Truthful Post-Election Version)" piece, there wasn't a single funny word. It was purely a political statement of your liberal leanings.

John Pierre
Edmonds, WA

We're sorry for what you perceive as a lack of funny words. To remedy this oversight, we present the following panoply of funny words and encourage you to pepper your conversation with them when speaking with your Distohead conservative friends — their sides will be aching with laughter! — forklifts...canuck...urulu...epitsson...monkey juice...pneumatic...f...sassafras...Cleveland...Dole...Gingrich...Buchanan...Pornan...Gramm...Lugar...Lamar...Zamboni! — Ed.

REVENGE OF THE NERD?

You have made fun of many things, but in issue #334 you went too far. A subtitle on the cover reads "Comic Book Fans (Geeks on Parade)"! This statement is probably the worst MAD has ever made. Comic book fans are not geeks and in fact do have a life. I myself am a comic book fan and I am not a geek, dweeb, nerd or whatever you want to call me. I hope you think more next time before you print a statement like this. You just lost yourself a subscriber!

Beau McAree
Colorado Springs, CO

We stand corrected. At no time did we mean to imply that all comic book fans are geeks, dweeb or nerds. Just comic book fans named "Beau"! See ya, loser! — Ed.

Printed in U.S.A.

THE (BAD) DREAM TEAM

The Sposset Sharks (part of the Intermediate Boy's Division of the Sposset, NY Soccer Club) relax after winning a game by donning their Alfred E. Neuman masks. Just like the professional soccer teams in Europe and South America! They don't wear the masks during games, though. If they did, they'd have a hard time deciding whether they'd rather kick the ball or each other's face!

A LAME BRAIN LETTER

When I received MAD #334 and looked at the "Frankenstein" cover, I was disappointed to find out that Alfred E. Neuman has a brain.

Robby Askew
Lawrenceville, GA

And when we received your letter, you didn't disappoint at all! You follow? — Ed.

A DEAD LETTER

I am a loyal reader of your magazine, but as a Grateful Dead fan, I feel it necessary to point out a mistake on MAD #334's back cover, "Commemorative Music Stamps We'd Like to See." The enchanting Dead have existed for only 29 years, not 30! Previous to 1966, the same group was known as the Warlocks, and before that, Mother McCree's Uptown Jug Champions. Just thought you guys should know!

Paul Elsborg

Northbrook, IL
Paul — We appreciate your letter because most of us here are Deadheads too! Most of us, that is, except Assistant Editor Andrew J. Schwartzberg, the person who did the research for our stamp article. We've been having trouble with Schwartzberg lately and your letter wasn't the first we've received. Yours proved to be the breaking point, however, and we had no alternative but to let him go. Sure, we've joked about this in the past, but Schwartzberg is such a slacker and layabout, this time we mean it! Just check the next issue's masthead and see if you can find him! He's history! — Ed.

DAD AGAIN

My father has been reading your magazine for 35 years. This is what he looks like now!

Alex LeBuffe
Houston, TX

Man, oh man, we bet you can't wait for Parent's Night at school! Trust us, when Jenny Jones sees this photo, you're going to get the call! Oh, and say hi to everyone at the trailer park! —Ed.

FUN WITH GUNS

Having lost a family member myself to senseless gun violence, I look at the NRA as a group that is not protecting people's rights but violating people's right to life. It is simple mathematics. Each of the following countries except the U.S.A. has very tough gun control legislation:

Country	1992 handgun deaths
Australia	13
England	33
Sweden	36
Japan	60
U.S.A.	13,220

2+2=4...Guns+people=death.

Thomas Sposato
St. James, NY

Tommy Boy — The figures you quote make perfect sense to us! All except one, that is... are you sure 2+2=4??

—Ed.

Why do we believe the anti-gun groups who say banning firearms will make us safer, when the overwhelming majority of crimes are committed with guns that were not legally purchased in the first place! Violent crime in Washington, D.C. tripled after "carrying" was made illegal and only the bad guys had guns. The places with the strictest gun laws (New York City and Washington, D.C.) are horrifyingly more violent than Montpelier, VT, with the most lenient gun laws!

Frieda L. Weber
Ft. Edward, NY

New York and D.C. horrifyingly more violent? Your letter is not without merit. The thought of living in Montpelier, VT, however, makes us want to put a gun to our head, so it kind of evens out! —Ed.

GETTING TOO CAREYED AWAY DEPT.

The place: Gotham City. The time: dusk. As the sun sets over the vast cityscape, the denizens of the underworld go into action. Their mission is to commit heinous crimes against the state, destroy the fabric of society, and do battle with a friggin' pansy wearing latex pants, a long-flowing cape and a sweaty leather mask! Yup, if we've seen this once we've seen this three times. There's nothing new about...

BUTTMAN

I can't believe Brute Lame wouldn't help me mass produce my invention! He said it was too much like a mind control device, but he's wrong! And if I can get my device on him, I'll use it to control his mind! My virtual reality invention makes things seem so real! I feel like I'm really at a circus! It even smells bad! I better be careful not to step in any virtual reality elephant dung!

The Children's Hospital profusely thanks Brute Lame for his generous contribution of one million dollars! Unfortunately, to celebrate his donation we spent one million five hundred thousand on this stupid circus spectacular, so the orphans get screwed again!

The circus! I love it! It's fun for kids of all ages!

The circus! I hate it! I can't wait for someone to get killed!

How do they fit so many clowns in that tiny car?

The bigger question is — how do they fit so many clowns with machine guns in that tiny car?

I never liked clowns when I was a kid! Now I finally understand why! They kill people! Look at them shooting the people in the audience! The humor in this situation escapes me!

Oh, I don't know! Pulp Fiction played violence for laughs and won a lot of awards!

FERSHLUGGINER

Let me tell you a little bit about myself, Brutel! I'm Dr. Chaste Maiden! I specialize in dual personalities and abnormal psychology!

That's quite a pair!

I'm glad you noticed! But let's stick to abnormal psychology, shall we? Did you notice that odd man with two faces over there? He has the ultimate split personality!

That odd man is Dual Puss! He used to be District Attorney, but he left public office to pursue a life of crime!

Oh, really? Well that seems pretty bizarre!

I'll say! Most District Attorneys pursue a life of crime while in office! That way they don't have to give up their hospitalization and pension plans!

Hot Dogs, $71
Ice cold soda, $51

Do you hear the prices on that stuff? There's more than one hold-up going on here!

DRUCKER

Isn't that cute!
The Flying
Gravestones
are trying to dismantle my megaton TNT
bomb! I admire their bravery!

Those $%& acrobats are trying to dismantle my bomb! They're also about to change from the Flying Gravestones to the Dying Gravestones!
Shoot 'em down, boys and get this hold-up underway!

He talks
out of both sides of his mouth!
He must be
Dual Puss... or Newt Gingrich!

I can't look! Those trapeze artists are going to fall to their deaths!

You better
look! It cost me $300 to get seats
this close to the action!

I saved quite a few lives by hurling Dual Puss's bomb into the river! Unfortunately, I have no way of knowing how many tourists died
on the Circle Line
boat it sank!

You're
a hero, Dork! Your parents must be proud
of you!

My parents are dead! Remember?
They were shot down from their high wires last night by Dual Puss and his men!

Yes, but all the way down to the ground, I bet
they were thinking —
"our son is really brave" — right up to the splat, that is!

Where would you like to sleep, Dork?
This place has 37 bedrooms, but quite frankly,
mine has the most comfortable bed!

Thanks,
but this is only our first

And since you like
spandex and capes,
you won't believe your eyes when you see the Butt-wardrobe! It's massive! And talk about mirrors...

Okay Smoothie,
you've got yourself a roomie! That "man to man"
talk about kinky clothes convinced me!

There's another neat thing about staying here! My bedroom is the perfect place to have revealing, recurring nightmares! Especially about dead parents!

Just what I need!
I'm definitely staying!

Neuman,
I had one of those dreams
again!

It's no
problem,
sir!
I'll wash the sheets
again!

No, not those dreams, Neuman!
The other dreams
about bats and my family! I think there's some obscure connection!

Obscure connection?
Unarmed, your family tried to stop a gang of thugs toting
machine guns!
Your family
was bats...sir!

I don't know if I became Buttman to fight crime, or to fight the fear of crime! Because fearing fighting crime can be more fearful than fighting the crime itself, or the fear! It's deep, I know!

It's so deep I need the ButtShovel! But first, this note came for you: "Puzzle me this: If Michael Keaton turned down ten million dollars to play Buttman in this movie — what did he know that you didn't? Signed, the Piddler!"

First Siskel, then Ebert, now him! Is everybody a critic?

How come you respond so quickly when the police send the Butt-Signal?

I'd like to see you try to sleep when someone shines a fifty million watt spotlight in your bedroom window!

Actually, I sent the signal! I'm quite attracted to your ButtCape, your ButtTights and your ButtMask! I'd kiss you, but I'm not attracted to your ButtBreath! Yuck!

We have a really sicko-wacko-creepo murderer on the loose!

Leave the diagnoses to the professionals, like me!

His latest note says: "Puzzle me this: Why is the part of a renowned psychologist played with so much flesh uncovered? Is it to cover-up bad acting?"

I hope you catch that really sicko-wacko-creepo murderer — and fast!

I want you to take this made-in-Taiwan dream doll! It's truly unique! It's the only doll that wasn't made by Mattel! She stands sentry while you sleep and she'll help end your nightmares!

How much air does she take?

Air?

Yes! Every doll I've ever owned is inflatable!

A stick up! It can't be! We are Got'em's finest citizens!

Okay then, it's not a stick up! Think of it as a redistribution of your wealth!

I hate to say it, but this is the first time I've been at the opera and didn't fall asleep!

Has Buttman lost his touch? Where is he while the city is under siege? And help, I'm being robbed!

Prepare the ButtMobile, Neuman. I'm going into Got'em!

The ButtMobile is prepared and it's already in Got'em!

You're very efficient, Neuman, but I think that's too efficient! How did the ButtMobile get to town without me?

Master Gravestone took it, sir! As you can see, I tried to stop him!

It puzzles me:
How come Buttman
always comes crashing through the ceilings or windows! He never walks through a door!

If you dressed like that would you walk in through a door?

Hey!
Another
fight
scene,
right
on time!

You bet!
They have one every 20 minutes to keep up the energy level
of the film!

Those
villains won't get away with this! I pull on my ButtBelt
and—

Your ButtTights
fall down to reveal your ButtBriefs!

I can't get the hang
of this new outfit!
One of these buckles
has a rocket launcher!
No, that one releases
my garters— Neuman
should label all this!

I'll chase the
thugs while you work out the kinks in your ButtSuit!
Be careful
what you pull out next!

The crooks escaped into the desolate subway station! It's so musty— when do you think it was last used?

It's never been used!
It's still being built!
It's 53 years behind schedule, meaning
it's your typical city contract being built at tax-payers expense!

There goes Dual Puss
at 20 miles-per-hour
on a jury-rigged skateboard! We've got to stop him!

Relax, Buttman! The express train is coming toward him from the opposite direction at 50 miles-per-hour! He's going to get a free transfer...to the graveyard!

Dual Puss welded
his fate on the third rail! Now we have to get rid of
that other dog,
the Piddler! This is Paw Island, his headquarters! Any idea of how to trap him?

I already did!

Did you use the ButtBoat?
The Butt-
Plane? A ButtBomb?

No! I used my own methods! I riddled him this: How come the first Buttman movie needed only one villain, but this one, like the second one, needs two? Does it take two mediocre actors to equal one Jack Nicholson? He went crazy trying to figure it out!
He's locked up at the asylum!

We
make a good team, don't we Buttman?

Yes, we do!

Then I think you're going to love the new Butt- Signal I
devised!

Nice Robin, but in these days of ultra right-wingers, maybe it's best if we keep our little secret
tucked away in the deep dark recesses
of the ButtCave!

If there's an especially hot place in hell, surely it is reserved for the numbskull idiot morons who write assembly instructions. Whether you're trying to put together a child's toy, an exercise bike or storage bin, if there's a way to make the instructions impossible to understand, these beanhead writers do it with ambiguous terms, technical jargon and meaningless phrases. (Then again, maybe all these instructions are clear and it's just the entire population of the planet that is "mechanically challenged".) Nah, it's them! And we wish them a pox on their house as we present. . .

ARTIST: MALINDA DUNN

WRITER: JIM BARTON

ASSEMBLY

"Save Some Biscuits For Me!"

Practically everything you need to assemble the RumbaFlex 2000 is included. The only additional supplies you'll need are a putty knife, a 14" orbital band saw, cotton or cheesecloth buffing mitts, a ceramic rabbit or other clamping device, a standard set of metric socket wrenches and 48oz. of luke-warm pudding.

You'll see the difference in the new RumbaFlex 2000 before you've even used it. That's because we've made assembly so easy.

1) On a clean, dry surface, arrange all RumbaFlex 2000 parts in a sweeping floral pattern, making sure to weed out any with defective gaskets or pungent odors.

2) Attach all core grids, chassis, frames, bars, joists, blades and scoops using wood screws and epoxy. Soak all connections and joints in a zesty tomato-based sauce.

3) Join all valves, fuses, clamps, sockets and shafts with your choice of nuts and straps.

4) Insert all probes. (Keep that chamois cloth coming!)

5) Firmly attach housing and casing by wrapping flexifins around U-shaped nugget logs and crimping with your custom needle-nose "nipping grips." This is especially important for those who will be using the RumbaFlex 2000 in humid climates, during street festivals or near fishing rodeos.

6) Finally, add decorative accessories and sporty detailing. Make your RumbaFlex 2000 a reflection of your personality—racy, reserved, bright, cheerful, morose, wacky, laconic, bloated, unctuous — whatever you like! Remember...now you're in control!

When assembling your RumbaFlex 2000, it is best to dress comfortably and avoid wearing fragrances. Also, to avoid tripping or stumbling during assembly, never wear shoes with tassels, festoons or jutting, beak-like appendages. By following these few simple steps, you will be able to quickly and easily assemble your RumbaFlex 2000, and start enjoying it right away. Here at Rumba Products, Inc., we like to say, "Rumba is so easy, and moist too!" ENJOY!

OPERATION

"Just Like Salsa...Only Square!"

Your new RumbaFlex 2000 is so easy to operate, you'll think you've just flossed. But don't worry, it's the Rumba way!

1) Start your RumbaFlex 2000 by turning the ignition key and pedaling the choke roller. On cold or cloudy mornings you may experience some hesitation or sputtering in the RumbaFlex 2000 ignition mechanism. Don't worry! Unless there's a prurient discharge, a simple shim insertion beneath the sprocket reel will restore instant starting.

2) Before engaging the RumbaFlex 2000's forward rotary units or siphon puffs (They look harmless, but have you ever had a head hickey?), make sure you have secured the colorful bunting and tightened all tarpaulin lines. (Remember Rumba's not just a name anymore! Rumba! Rumba!)

3) Choose your operation and target coordinates. It's important to choose the operation first, before selecting target coordinates. You'll avoid messy and costly mistakes, clean-up will be easier and you'll escape the itch and swelling.

4) During operation, keep a firm grip on all backhoe levers, without neglecting the deli meats. With the RumbaFlex 2000, you no longer have to choose between a fresh hoagie and a tingling scalp. Remember, you've chosen the best. You've chosen Rumba!

5) Once you've finished the job, it's easy to secure and store your RumbaFlex 2000 for future "Rumba Tasks"! Simply fold the juice flames back over the cabin shelves (Don't worry! The snaps are there!), zip up the forward dickerie crispers, and spread a little "Hasty-Jam" paste across the injection nodes.

And that's it! Your RumbaFlex 2000 is safely stored and protected, ready to once again serve all your Rumba needs.

MAINTENANCE

"Never Too Tight! Never Too Thick!"

The RumbaFlex 2000 practically takes care of itself. And with its new "Auto-Whisk" mechanism, you'll never have to spackle again. Just make sure to follow these simple steps on a regular basis, and your new RumbaFlex will give you years and years of trouble-free operation.

1) Buff all towels at least every three weeks. You'll feel better. Your RumbaFlex 2000 will cover more ground. 2) Keep the pistons and shafts free of lint, butter and aloe build-up. This can cause sticking and chin irritation, resulting in stunted horizontal thrashing. 3) Remember to flush the tubes and valves with our special "Rumba-Wash" lubricating pepper gel. This ensures firm suction and cutting motion as smooth as toast. 4) When storing your RumbaFlex 2000, be sure to place all protective cushion-boots on the external probes and blades. Also, the snack basket and steam press should be covered to prevent rust, deterioration and grass stains. 5) Remove all beef slabs and used ointment applicators from the overhead compartment. Your RumbaFlex 2000 will smell better, and rats and opossum will stay away.

The most important thing to remember about maintaining your new RumbaFlex is to relax. We've designed durability and flexibility right in. Plus, your Rumba service representative is as close as your telephone. Just call us up and say, "It's a Rumba day! And moist too!"

TROUBLESHOOTING

"Pop If It's Blue!"

You may experience some slight initial malfunctions or operational interruptions in your new RumbaFlex 2000. Don't worry! This is normal. Any mechanism as sensitive and complex as the RumbaFlex 2000 will experience "growing pains" as its electronics and components adjust to start-up performance and your particular user environment.

To make this breaking-in period less troublesome, here are a few troubleshooting pointers:

1) A low wheezing or grinding sound in the piston buffers means there is not enough silicone putty reaching the auger bits. This is easily remedied by wedging a set of wooden soup spoons between your upper thighs during use.

2) If you experience excessive horizontal vibration when switching the vinyl chipper into mulch mode, simply shift the timing sprockets two notches toward the "stick-n-sturdy" floor struts, daub a liberal amount of McComb's "SuperSalve" grooming paste on the AZ34 gel receptacle, and continue normal operation. If vibration persists, the problem could rest in the jacketed solvent seal, in which case you're screwed.

3) When using your new RumbaFlex 2000 to bore through masonry or prepare tuna side dishes, you may notice a slight burning sensation in the pelvic region. If you find this objectionable, tighten the bypass enclosure that leads from your fabric dip tanks to the hobber bins. This should quickly ease the pressure and flush out all harsh poultry residues. Say cheese!

WARNING!

Your new RumbaFlex 2000 is equipped with numerous multi-level, redundant safety systems to prevent personal injuries and foul odors. However, use of the RumbaFlex 2000 as a recreational vehicle, hygiene supplement or decorative centerpiece is extremely dangerous and strongly discouraged. Rumba, Inc. assumes no responsibility for any results or consequences stemming from such use.

An old riddle goes, "What has three teeth, an I.Q. of 30 and drools a lot?" Answer: "the first row of fans at a wrestling match!" We at MAD think this is highly unfair to the legions of "squared circle" aficionados who pay their hard earned money to watch overweight, sweaty guys pretend to maim and cripple each other. It takes a special kind of individual to appreciate the beauty and grace in such stupid violence. Clearly, these devoted ring rooters have their own twisted perspective, as you'll see in...

Trouble is, with 412 of these gab-fests on dailly, they've pretty much covered the existing "victim-ography" over and over again! (Think about it: which show hasn't "done" bulimics 10 times?) ARTIST DAVE MANAK WRITER DESMOND DEVLIN

Goofus is pretty sure that the green stuff he coughs up every morning is just phlegm.

Thinking it unseemly, Gallant never discusses ultra-personal details in those face-to-face sex talks with the guys.

Goofus agrees; after all, that's what the Internet is for.

Goofus says that if she didn't want it, she never should've ordered the fancy salad.

Gallant thinks dining al fresco is good for a first date, because the casual atmosphere and the constant street traffic help take the pressure off.

Goofus prefers to eat outside too, in case he has to cut one.

Who'd you book as guests for tonight's show?

It's going to be fantastic—just one guest! He's the hottest new movie star, Jim Carrey! We're the only late night show he's doing and you get to spend the whole hour with him!

I can't stand Jim Carrey! His movies are an insult to a moron's intelligence!

I can't stand him, either! But it's sweeps week and we're nose to nose with Leno and Letterman! We need the ratings!

Artie, is there anything you wouldn't do for ratings?

Yeah! Spend two full hours with Jim Carrey!

I can't tell you how happy we are to have you on the show! I just love your work! I've seen every one of your "Ernest" movies!

It's a real pleasure to welcome you to our show, Jim! You made a great impression with your first starring role as "Ace Ventura, Putz Detective..."

That's "Pet Detective," Larry!

Not the movie I saw! Tell me, Jim, how does it feel to be an overnight success?

Actually, success didn't come just overnight! I spent 15 years working the comedy clubs and six years on In Living Color!

How did that show's audience accept you?

Not too well, Larry! Whenever I came on, a lot of them thought there was something wrong with the "contrast knob" on their TV sets!

Jim, some people have said that your movies seem to glorify stupidity! What do you say to that?

Blow it out your rear window, Hank! I'm talking to Jimbo!

I just heard that Carrey's doing the Leno and Letterman shows next week! His agent promised me that we had an exclusive for the entire month! That double crosser!

What do you want me to do?

Get rid of that rubber-faced bastard! We're not doing any promos for the competition!

But we have a half hour more to go! What am I supposed to do for thirty minutes?

Abuse Hank! What else is a sidekick good for?

We're back! Jim had to run, so I thought we could use the time to get better acquainted with Hank Kingsley! That'll show you the kind of real life stupidity that I have to put up with every night!

Thanks, Larry! God, I love this guy!
